THE GEMS

OF

ROCKCREEK

CENTER

SCHOOL

In remembrance of her helpfulness, cheerfulness, and friendly interest, the staff affectionately dedicates to Mrs. Esther Roe this edition of the East Rockcreek High School Gems.

"A perfect woman, nobly planned to warm, to comfort, and command and yet a spirit still, and bright
With something of angelic light."

DEPARTMENTALS

ADMINISTRATION

Trustee
DOYLE ESPICH

County Superintendent of Schools
LLOYD C. LIEURENCE

Our School Board is not seen by our students in everyday school life, yet the school could not function without it. With the welfare of the school and the student body in mind, the Board does all the long-range planning for new school buildings, new teachers, and better facilities. They give many hours of their time freely to enable our community to have a better, more efficient school system.

As the firm banks of a river guide its course, so do the administration and faculty at Rockcreek High School direct the years of our life in school.

"HERE COMES CHARLIE"

On a trip to the Ozarks, Larry promises an old man who saves his life, that he will do anything that the old man wishes. The old man dies and sends his child, Charlie, to Larry.

Larry's fiancee and his aunt do not want the child. When the child arrives, they discover that Charlie is a girl. Her uncle Aleck accompanies her and they are typical backwoods hillbillies. The aunt makes Aleck a butler but does not know what to do about the girl.

Larry's fiancée, who is marrying him for his money, and his aunt try to get rid of the girl. Charlie's uncouth manners send Mrs. Smythe-Kersey and Vivian into a tither and they leave. Mortimer seems a bit friendly toward the girl.

In a last desperate attempt to get the girl to leave, Mrs. Farnham and Vivian invite Charlie to dinner hoping that she will behave terribly. In the meantime Mrs. Smythe-Kersey returns and loses her pearls which Mrs. Farnham hides in Charlie's room.

Eleven months pass and Larry invites Charlie and Aleck to dinner. Charlie has changed and is beautiful. Many men, including Ted and Mortimer, ask Larry for her hand in marriage. He refuses them and then is so taken by her new manner that he asks her to marry him and she happily accepts.

You study, . . . you read, . . . you meet, . . . you participate in athletics, . . . you have music, . . . you have fun, . . . you are the students of East Rockcreek School. There is an administration that informs your intellect, . . . shapes your character, . . . and guides your emotions. Your activities teach you organization, . . . cooperation, . . . skills for the future, . . . leadership, . . . dependability, . . . and musical skill. Athletics teach you good sportsmanship, . . . teamwork, . . . humbleness, . . . loyalty. In these different ways your school contributes to the development of future citizens in this community.
